

April 4th 11

Dear Margaret,

We want to give a special tribute to Rose Hunt. She was the first person from your agency to care for our mother, Mrs. Shirley L. Stapp, and she was the last - continuously being her caregiver throughout the years from 2007 until last month (February 27, 2011). She cared for her with constant good humor and encouragement - with careful handling and lavish personal care - not only bathing her for cleanliness, but also for beauty, choosing her clothing thoughtfully and styling her hair. She fed her her meals with wisdom, giving us advice we needed. We could not have found as well as we did. We had not been our way helping us always as we needed her. We are very, very fortunate, because much, much we hope that she will be back with all your things - good health, financial security, as well as her own family many happy successes.

With our grateful appreciation and the
