To whom it may concern,

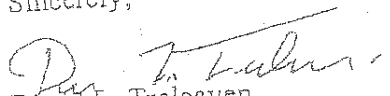

I give my wholehearted recommendation to Tamara Gurskaya. Without any reservation, I vouch for her good character and diligence. Our family owes her a debt of gratitude for the wonderful care which she provided to my mother.

My mother's very poor health was an enormous challenge to Tamara. Nevertheless, Tamara took outstanding care of her with total dedication and professionalism. Even in the most difficult moments, Tamara never lost her good cheer and impeccable bed-side skills.

Tamara was a great source of comfort to my mother. There is no doubt that her expert attentions contributed to an extension of my mother's quality-of-life well beyond our expectations. Tamara contributed to my mother's well-being in many ways; administering her prescription medicines, attending to her nutrition and hygiene, general home care, and companionship.

Beyond the care she extended to my mother, Tamara also provided great support to our family. She greatly eased the difficulties, both physical and mental, associated with the failing health of a parent. Tamara is truly an exceptional person.

Sincerely,
